

EUROPE

The International Society for Human Rights (ISHR) is represented throughout Eastern and Western Europe, which primarily address issues related to violations of civil and political rights at home and abroad. The ISHR headquarters are located in Germany, and the German section carries out human rights work for ten different target countries worldwide.

Updates

ISHR Annual General Meeting from 13th-15th March 2020

Dear friends, the annual conference is the central event of the ISHR, where members, friends, sponsors and interested parties meet and exchange information . Please support us by your numerous participation!

Impressive Eastern Europe conference on disinformation in Frankfurt a.M.

Under the theme: Facebook, Twitter, Instagram • Increasing means of disinformation and manipulation in Eastern Europe

Guest lecture on human trafficking at the University of Cologne

The President of the International Council of the International Society for Human Rights, Thomas Schirrmacher, gave a lecture on “Human Trafficking - The Return of Slavery” in Lecture Hall XII of the University of Cologne at the invitation of the student association ‘campus connect’.

Germany: 30 years after the peaceful revolution in the GDR and Eastern Europe

The contribution of Stasi and KGB memorials to the culture of remembrance: This was the theme of a conference of the International Society for Human Rights (ISHR) in Frankfurt am Main on the anniversary of the fall of the Berlin Wall.

The President of the ISHR meets with human rights defenders in Moldova and in Transnistria

The President of the International Society for Human Rights (ISHR), Professor Thomas Schirrmacher, visited the Republic of Moldova from May 4 to 6, 2019. The purpose of the visit was to support Moldovan human rights activists, including the members of the Moldovan Section of the ISHR, as well as on-site study of the state of human rights in the Republic of Moldova, including the unrecognized Pridnestrovian Moldavian Republic (Transnistria).

Schirrmacher thanks 40.000 Ahmadiyya Muslims for the Engagement for Religious Freedom

The president of the International Council of the ISHR and Director of the International Institute for Religious Freedom (IIRF), Professor Thomas Schirrmacher, thanked the 40.000 participants of the Ahmadiyya Jalsa Salana in Karlsruhe for not only enjoying religious freedom in Germany after having fled death threats in Pakistan, but in turn loud and insisting called for religious freedom and against any violence or compulsion in religion.

LOAD MORE POSTS