The International Society for Human Rights (ISHR) is represented throughout Eastern and Western Europe, which primarily address issues related to violations of civil and political rights at home and abroad. The ISHR headquarters are located in Germany, and the German section carries out human rights work for ten different target countries worldwide.

Updates

Corona, the World and Human Rights

Human rights activists of the International Society for Human Rights/ISHR have already expressed their concern at the beginning of the massive measures that the remedy against the pandemic could prove to be worse than the pandemic itself.
Corona in Germany

At the end of December news came from China, that a new type of a deadly virus had developed there. With horror, I texted this news to my children, in my head scenes from American pandemic disaster movies.

ISHR Annual General Meeting from 13th–15th March 2020

Dear friends, the annual conference is the central event of the ISHR, where members, friends, sponsors and interested parties meet and exchange information. Please support us by your numerous participation!

Impressive Eastern Europe conference on disinformation in Frankfurt a.M.

Under the theme: Facebook, Twitter, Instagram • Increasing means of disinformation and manipulation in Eastern Europe

Guest lecture on human trafficking at the University of Cologne

The President of the International Council of the International Society for Human Rights, Thomas Schirrmacher, gave a lecture on “Human Trafficking – The Return of Slavery” in Lecture Hall XII of the University of Cologne at the invitation of the student association ‘campus connect’.

Germany: 30 years after the peaceful revolution in the GDR and Eastern Europe

The contribution of Stasi and KGB memorials to the culture of remembrance: This was the theme of a conference of the International Society for Human Rights (ISHR) in Frankfurt am Main on the anniversary of the fall of the Berlin Wall.