Why we are the right employer for you?

You gain an insight into the work of human right organisations worldwide. We offer a work atmosphere that is friendly and open towards other people. The ISHR is a non-profit and a charitable organisation. That is why we are not interested in doing profit but in helping people in need all around the world. We work idealistically. We work at the base of the declaration of human rights; we do our utmost for the freedom of religion, the freedom of conscience and for the freedom of speech.

You will get an overview about how to do something for human rights when the Federal Volunteer Service has come to an end and about how to advertise for the support of human rights. You will get experience in the fields of journalism, looking for members and in the field of humanitarian aid. You will get pocket money; moreover, we will pay social security costs.
